

Teaching Sermon Series To Be Launched on Sunday

A special service of Holy Communion will be held at 6:30 a.m. Friday in honor of St. John the Baptist Day at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave. The Rev. Fr. Hugh R. Percy will be celebrant.

A new sermon series on "The Teachings of the Episcopal Church," will begin Sunday at the 9:15 and 11 a.m. services. Father Percy has chosen this subject as especially appropriate for the Trinity season.

The first topic in the series will be entitled, "How to Behave in Church," and was described as instructions of the church members in the proper responses to the ancient rituals of the church.

The topics on succeeding Sundays will include "The

Rev. Stanton In Santa Ana For Meeting

The Rev. Walter M. Stanton, pastor of Central Church, is attending the annual meeting of pastors of the Evangelical United Brethren Churches of the California Conference which opens today in Santa Ana.

A service of communion will open the annual meeting at Grand Avenue Church in Santa Ana. Bishop Maynard Sparks will officiate at the rite.

The conference will be concluded Sunday noon with a sermon by Bishop Sparks, the ordination of ministers, and assignment of pastors to fields of service for the coming year.

Lay delegates from Central Church to the meeting include Merle Johnston and his alternate, George Culley.

Several members of the church planned to attend the men's banquet in Santa Ana last evening.

The Rev. T. B. Murphy, who is leaving with his wife to reside in El Paso, Tex., will bring the sermon here Sunday in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Stanton.

Rivieran Wins B. A. Degree From Brandeis

Timothy S. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell H. Elliott, 316 Calle Mayor, has received a bachelor of arts degree from Brandeis University at Waltham, Mass.

Elliott, an American civilization major at Brandeis, was president of the Men's Inter-dorm Council; treasurer of his senior class; a Dean's List student; co-chairman of junior parent week end, and a member of the Pre-Law Society.

The student plans to attend Harvard Law School in the fall. He was graduated from Fairfax High School in Virginia and was president of student government and an honor society member.

Park Schedules Huck Finn Day

Life on the Ol' Mississip' will be recreated by youngsters in the El Nido Park area when the park stages a Huck Finn Day on Friday.

Boys and girls dressed as Mark Twain characters will participate in a stew luncheon, costume parade, games and special events from noon until 3 p.m.

The event is in keeping with the Mark Twain motif arranged by the Torrance Recreation Dept. for current activities at the various parks and playgrounds.

The park is at 18301 Kings-tale Ave.

One-Third of Entries in Youth Economy Run From Compact Field

Dramatizing the compact trend in American motoring, is the entry list of 36 new cars today announced for the seventh Youth Safety Run of the Police Advisory Council for Car Clubs, which starts at 3 a.m. Monday from Azusa.

Of them, 12 will be compact, entered as a class for the first time, said Vehicle Acceptance Chairman, Sgt. S. W. Miles, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

The list will include four Rambler Americans and Ford Falcons, three Chevrolet Corvairs, and one Studebaker Lark.

CLASS BREAK-DOWN for this year's test of more than 900 miles (Azusa to Sacramento-Mather Air Force Base, with return leg on Wednesday), will be in four categories—Compact, Economy Six, Low Price, and Low Medium Price ranges.

Macmillan Petroleum Corp., co-sponsoring the big safety-economy run, is presenting the elaborate sweepstakes awards for winners in both miles per gallon and ton miles.

BEGINNING Friday, the glistering array of 1960 vehicles will be at impound in the Azusa National Guard Armory, under Officer Robert Sinclair. Public open house is slated

Sunday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., after which the area will be closed. The 108 young men of 48 car clubs competing (along with most of the 50 PACCC supervising officers), will be sent home for a few hours shut-eye before the pre-dawn start (from Third and Orange Sts., Azusa).

ALTHOUGH THE 1960 run will be the longest yet attempted, PACCC president, Sgt. Bob Thomas (Lynwood PD), said "there's every reason to expect this will be our finest."

"We hope to continue our past no-accident-no-traffic-citation record. There is little doubt the economy-performance ratings will be both close RUN SCHEDULE will be — north: start Azusa (one minute intervals), 3 a.m.; Santa Maria, gas, 7 a.m.; King City, lunch, 10 a.m.; San Jose, gas, noon; Sacramento, gas, 3 p.m., then Mather Air Force (impound, hosts). Tuesday, lay-over. Wednesday, return south: depart MAFB 6 a.m.; Fresno, lunch, 10 a.m.; Malaga, gas stop; Bakersfield, gas, 1 p.m.; Azusa, first arrival about 6 p.m.
